Congratulations to President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris

I am happy to congratulate The 46th President Joe Biden for winning the United States Presidential election 2020.

I want to especially congratulate Vice President Kamala Harris for making history as the first female, first African American and first Asian American to become Vice President of the United States. I am happy and proud to see a little bit of my Jamaican heritage in the White House.

I wish the new Presidential team great success as they take up the new responsibilities and challenges in their new positions.

While we represent different levels of government, we can achieve so much more by working together to improve lives and strengthen our communities. We need to continue to address the priorities and the needs of the people.

There's an open invitation to President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris to visit the City of New Carrollton.

Robbery Prevention Tips!

- Trust your instincts. If you sense trouble, get away as soon as possible
- Show confidence. Walk at a steady pace, keep your head up and avoid carrying lots of packages. It can make you look defenseless
- Don't look like an easy target. Robbers want someone who will provide the least resistance. If you look like you know where you are going, walk with your head up and eyes alert, you will most likely be left alone
- Be observant
- Remain alert and observe the people around you. Know who is walking behind and in front of you. Things to watch for include suspicious persons or vehicles, people who are wearing inappropriate clothing for the weather (e.g. a long or heavy coat in warm weather), and people just loitering around
- Walk in well-lit areas. If possible, do not walk alone
- Be aware of your surroundings. If you think you are being followed, go to a crowded area
- Do not carry large amounts of money
- Carry keys in your hand

If you observe suspicious persons or activities, call the police 301-352-1200.

Let's all do our part to be a good neighbor!
